

PERSONĂ, PERSONALITATE, RESPONSABILITATE¹

Author: Gheorghe MIHAI*

Author: Emilia MIHAI

Abstract: Modern times consider as a person the individual man being endowed with reason and conscience; this man cannot be but person because he shows so many persons. According to the positive law the human individual is considered a person: natural person in civil relations; criminal in criminal relations; public officer in administrative relations, etc. "Natural person", "criminal", "public officer" are terms from legal terminology of different branches of law that define the individual in the law, the one and the same that enters social relations, legal relations, etc.: I am considered natural person in the civil law, criminal in the criminal law, public officer in the administrative law, taxpayer in the fiscal law, etc.

Keywords: Person, Personality, Responsibility, Civil Relations, Criminal Relations, Law.

JEL Classification: K39

¹ Asupra corelației între responsabilitate și răspundere cât privește persoana în drept, vezi instructiva lucrare a profesorului Gheorghe Boboș, Răspunderea, responsabilitatea și constrângerea în domeniul dreptului, Cluj-Napoca, 1996.

* Dr., Professor, Western University of Timișoara, Romania.

 Dr. Associate Professor, Western University of Timișoara, Romania