

GOOD EXAMPLES OF M-GOVERNMENT IN HUNGARY<sup>1</sup>

Balázs SZABÓ *

ABSTRACT: In today's advanced information-based societies, a growing development process can be observed, based on the development of information and communication technologies. These are used by different governments at different levels, mainly because of the scale and scarcity of available resources.

The most important specialty of information communication technology (ICT) is that new results prove the usefulness of ICT in almost every segment, such as employee, education and the research sphere. They contribute to facilitating education and working conditions, which is of fundamental interest to all users.

KEY WORDS: modernisation;- ICT ; Smartphone; Applications ; Authorisation.

JEL CODE: K 23
